Bellaire High's (TX) bid for a national championship ended this past weekend when it was eliminated in the region finals of the Texas playoffs. Still alive after taking two out of three from Calallen High (Corpus Christi, TX) is the new No. 1 team, Moody High (Corpus Christi, TX). Moody is now into single-elimination format and will face Texarkana's Texas High. The winner of that game will face the winner of Arlington Heights High (Fort Worth, TX) and Brenham High (TX).

Menchville High of Newport News, Va. took the 3-A Virginia State championship by beating Hanover High of Mechanicsville 7-1. Columbus (GA) High dropped to No. 19 after being taken down by now No. 15 Cartersville (GA) High in the 3-A state finals. Capistrano Valley High (Mission Viejo, CA) won the Southern Section Division I crown thanks to a solo home run by lefthander Tyler Matzek, who is sure to go in the first 10 picks of Tuesday's draft.
