After seeing Menchville High (Newport News, VA) drops its first game of the season, Bellaire High (TX) retakes the top spot in the Baseball America/National High School Baseball Coaches Association Top 25. Texas was under a statewide postponement of sporting events due to the rising concern over the swine flu virus. The Cardinals managed to get a few games in this past weekend and improve to 25-1. Poll mechanics helped two Corpus Christi powers—Moody and Calallen High—as Mater Dei (Santa Ana, CA) slipped out of the rankings after losing three of its last seven games.

Tampa's Jesuit High made an early exit from the playoffs. Local foe Plant High avenged an early season loss to the Tigers, beating them 3-2 in extra innings in the regional semifinal round. Lakeland High (FL) was also eliminated and dropped from the rankings. The Dreadnaughts lost 7-1 to Tampa's Alonso High in the regional quarterfinals. Alonso entered the rankings at No. 22 after beating Lakeland and Gaither High, also of Tampa.
