After seeing Menchville High (Newport News, VA) drop its first game of the season, Bellaire High (TX) retook the top spot in the Baseball America/National High School Baseball Coaches Association Top 25.

Bellaire High (TX) held fast to the top spot after advancing to the regional semi-final round in the playoffs. In the quarterfinals the Cardinals took down Houston's Memorial High in a three-game series. Memorial had won the first game but Bellaire battled back to stave off elimination.

Scottsdale, Ariz.'s Notre Dame Prep lost in the finals of the 4A-II state tournament and dropped eight spots to No. 10. That allowed Moody High of Corpus Christi, Texas to slide into the second spot. La Cueva High of Albuquerque fell the farthest, 11 spots, to No. 18 after losing in the 6-A state finals. Last year's national champion American Heritage High (Plantation, Fla.) dropped out of the rankings after being denied a second straight 3-A title. The Patriots fell to Jacksonville's Bolles High.
