

National High School Baseball Coaches Association/Baseball America

Top 25 Rankings

April 12th, 2011

Two tournaments played a role in the latest Baseball America/National High School baseball Coaches Association Top 25 rankings. Spanish Fork (Utah) High upset Las Vegas' Bishop Gorman High in the Big League Dugout Championship in Scottsdale, Ariz. The Gaels lost two games in Scottsdale and lost another to Las Vegas rival Sierra Vista when they returned, dropping them to No. 14 while Spanish Fork moved up to No. 7. In California, JSerra Catholic High of San Juan Capistrano bounced back from three losses in a five-game span to go 5-0 at the Anaheim Lions Tournament. The Lions beat El Toro High of Lake Forest in the championship game and rose from to No. 12.

Wayne County High of Jesup, GA made the biggest jump, from unranked to No. 16, after starting the season 17-0. Only two other teams joined the Top 25 this week. Douglas High of Parkland, Fla. debuts at No. 20 and Sierra Vista checked in at No. 23.
