DURHAM, N.C.—The top two teams in the Baseball America/National High School Baseball Coaches Association poll held on to their lofty rankings, as No. 1 The Woodlands (Texas) High and No. 2 Jackson High (Mill Creek, Wash.), continued their respective state playoffs.

At least seven states had completed their postseasons, and No. 3 Flanagan High (Pembroke Pines, Fla.), which clinched the Florida Class 6-A title, was one of three state champions to secure top-10 rankings in the latest poll. No. 7 Chaparral High (Scottsdale, Ariz.) earned Arizona's Class 4-A crown and No. 8 Monsignor Pace (Opa Locka, Fla.) capped its season with Florida's Class 4-A title.

The staff of Baseball America and the National High School Baseball Coaches Association compiles the Top 50 rankings. In-season polls are conducted every other week, with the final poll released June 19. Records indicated as of May 21 and do not include ties.
